'No handsets may reverse declining trend in revenue'

PRASAD THOOR OF INDIA
Mumbai, July 25

Investor buying growth bookings of ₹2,100 crore and a market cap of ₹1,000 crore, LTI has reported a decline in revenue for the quarter ended June 30, 2017. The decline is attributed to a decrease in handset sales, which is expected to continue in the near future. LTI CEO, Anand Maheshwari, said, "The decline in handset sales is a temporary setback and we expect to see a recovery in the near future. We are focusing on other areas of our business, such as software and services, which are expected to drive our growth in the long term." The company's revenue for the quarter ended June 30, 2017, was ₹1,000 crore, a decrease of 10% from the same period last year.
