HC raps Mumbai civic body over potholed roads

Mumbai

The Bombay High Court on Thursday rapped the Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai (MCGM) for its failure to repair potholes and maintain roads in the megapolis which has resulted in the death of over 20 people since monsoon.

"We read that because of potholes more than 25 persons have died this monsoon. How many more do you (MCGM) want to eliminate (kill) before next monsoon? The condition of the roads here are bad. We are not at all satisfied," said Chief Justice Manjula Chellur.

A division bench of Chief Justice Chellur and Justice N M Jamdar was hearing a suo moto (on its own) public interest litigation on the poor condition of roads in Mumbai and the MCGM's failure to prevent and repair potholes every monsoon.

The corporation's counsel Anil Sakhare On Thursday submitted to the court that it has so far addressed over 500 complaints regarding potholes to which the court quipped it was not concerned with how many complaints were attended to. "We want the roads to be repaired and maintained properly. The corporation is not just required to do so but it is obliged to maintain the roads," Chief Justice Chellur said. "From Friday onwards, I will personally note down how many potholes are there on the route I travel daily. If everyone starts doing it then entire Mumbai will be covered and then the corporation will know where there are potholes," Chief Justice Chellur said.
