Press Release

The Whole Time Member, Securities and Exchange Board of India has passed an Interim Order dated September 28, 2018 in which it has recorded certain prima facie findings against the Company on the basis of some prima facie materials. This Order is not a Final Order and SEBI vide the said order has asked the Exchange to appoint an independent forensic auditor to conduct the forensic audit of the Company for limited transactions as recorded in the order.

All the documents which were asked by SEBI were duly provided by the Company except certain documents which were more than eight years old and so were not in possession of the Company. From the Order it is clear that the Company is not a shell company and it will have no consequence or embargo on the liquidity of the trading of the Company on the Stock Exchange and the Order shall have no consequence on the trading in the scrip of the Company. As has been recorded in the order National Stock Exchange of India Ltd. has also submitted a positive representation to SEBI stating that Company is compliant with LODR Regulations and Company's share should be allowed to be traded on its platform.

The Company is taking legal advice in the matter and Management of the Company is confident that findings of the Order will be set aside upon proper appreciation of the facts and circumstance by SEBI.
