Juventus star Ronaldo returns at Old Trafford

Striker takes on his former club in the Champions League match

AGENCIES
Manchester

Cristiano Ronaldo will always be fondly remembered at Old Trafford, but as the five-time Ballon d'Or winner rolls back into town this week, this former hero may be the last sight Manchester United want to see.

Ronaldo made his name in Manchester, scoring 118 goals, winning three Premier League titles and the first of his five Champions Leagues before a then world record move to Real Madrid.

On Tuesday night he returns in the colours of Juventus, eager to let his football do the talking with the cloud of a rape accusation in the United States dating back to just before he made the move to Madrid in 2009 blighting his early days with the Italian giants.

Ronaldo strongly denies the allegation and has been backed by his club, but it remains to be seen if the hero worship afforded to the Portuguese on his last visit to Old Trafford in 2013 is dialled down a little by the United fans.

That night he broke United hearts, none more so than his old mentor Alex Ferguson in what proved to be his last European match in charge with the winning goal in a contentious tie. "It was an unbelievable night, a very emotional night and what the supporters did for me was massive," he said of his reception.

Juventus' defender Alex Sandro (L) and forward Cristiano Ronaldo attend a training session ahead of a clash against Manchester United

Ronaldo, though, has little room for sentiment when it comes to furnishing his own legacy. Five years ago his mission to win the Champions League was to land Madrid's long-awaited 10th European Cup. It took an extra year, but he eventually think he likes to come back here, he did when he was with Real Madrid. But, of course, when he returns with a new team he comes to do a job, for them."

The job now is to win the Champions League with a third different club and Juventus' first in 22 years. That is why the Vecchia Signora paid Madrid 112 million euros (USD 129 million) for a 33-year-old. "Juventus is one of the teams in Europe that invested to win the Champions League," added Mourinho when the draw was made.

Top scorer in the Champions League for the past six years, Ronaldo is yet to break his European duck with Juventus after being sent-off just 30 minutes into his Champions League debut for the club against Valencia, and missing the visit of Young Boys through suspension. Juventus proved despite the fanfare surrounding his signing, they remain much more than just Ronaldo by winning both games comfortably anyway to sit top of the group and well-placed for the last 16.

United's situation is more perilous as a 0-0 draw at home to Valencia last time out leaves them with work to do despite also easing past Young Boys 3-0. A run of four wins from their first nine Premier League games also does little to suggest they are likely to inflict Juve's first defeat of the season.

Serie A: Last-gasp skipper Icardi header grabs Inter derby spoils

AGENCIES
Rome

Captain Mauro Icardi struck a dramatic injury-time winner as Inter Milan stunned AC Milan 1-0 in the derby at the San Siro to retake third place in Serie A.

The Argentinian pounced on a mistake by goalkeeper Gianluigi Donnarumma to nod home in the second minute of added time after an otherwise forgettable match, leaving Gennaro Gattuso's Milan without a win in the last five league derbies.

But Inter continued their recent resurgence under Luciano Spalletti after finishing fourth last term to qualify for the Champions League for the first time since 2011-12, moving to within six points of leaders Juventus, after their 1-1 home draw with Genoa on Saturday. "I came here to win, not to just sit on a bench for a season and try to bring home a salary," former Roma coach Spalletti told Sky Sport Italia. "I came here to organise the future of Inter and the players must do the same. "I liked that after the final whistle, Icardi said we must find consistency and keep pushing. Inter chose us to bring this side back to the level that the fans deserve."

There was an injury blow for Inter ahead of Wednesday's Champions League clash against Barcelona, though, with Radja Nainggolan substituted midway through the first half after tangling with AC midfielder Lucas Biglia. "Nainggolan has been chopped down," added Spalletti.

"We have to take him to the hospital and see. He won't be with us for a while."

AC Milan remain down in 12th after seeing their eight-game unbeaten run in all competitions ended. Icardi had the ball in the net early on, but the striker's effort was ruled out for offside after a check with VAR. Although the opening stages of the game were not overflowing with attacking quality, there was plenty of niggles, with Biglia left incensed after he was booked despite appearing to have been stamped on by Nainggolan before the Belgian hobbled off.

Nominal home side Inter looked the more likely to find a breakthrough in the first-half.

Anand settles for draw vs Hess in Isle of Man Chess tournament

AGENCIES
Isle of Man (UK)

Former World Champion Viswanathan Anand struggled for the second day running as he was held to a draw by almost-retired Robert Hess of the United States in the second round of Isle of Man International Chess tournament here on Monday.

Anand was on the verge of losing to 13-year old Raunak Sadhwani in the first round and had to find some fine manoeuvres to stay in the game. In the second round also, the Indian continued to hunt for his form and again employed defensive approach towards the business end of the game.

Hess is a noted commentator and was the appointed coach of the US women's team earlier this year for the chess Olympiad.

Anand faced the French defence with white and could not get much and it was a tiring rook and pawns endgame, with a pawn less, that the Indian had to defend a long time before salvaging a draw after 78 moves. Upsets continued in the tournament with Indians involved in making most of the opportunities. At the top of the list in the second round was Grandmaster V Vishnu Prasanna, who got the better of nearly 200-points above rated Tamir Nabaty of Israel. Grandmaster-in-waiting Harsha Bhartakotti, who put it across compatriot and higher ranked SP Sethuraman in what was probably the game of the day. Harsha was at his best in attacking Sethuraman's king right from the word go will certainly find its way in many future tactics books.

Vidit Gujrathi also apparently made a contribution to the tactics books at the expense of fellow Indian Debashish Das. Gujrathi was in top form in bringing all his pieces together against a hapless black king.

Hungarian Peter Leko had won a very difficult endgame against Tania Sachdev in the previous round but found young Grandmaster R Praggnanandhaa a much tougher nut to crack.

The game ended in a draw as the former world championship candidate could not make any progress.

Praggnanandhaa's sister Vaishali also had her moment of glory as she played out a draw against former women's World Champion Alexandra Kosteniuk of Russia. Apart from Gujrathi, Harsha and Vishnu Prasanna, Grandmasters Abhijeet Gupta and Vaibhav Suri share the lead with a perfect score.

Prajnesh touches career-best 146

AGENCIES / New Delhi

Yuki Bhambri, who has just returned to circuit after recovering from a knee injury, dropped out of top-100 but Prajnesh Gunneswaran was rewarded for his good run at the Ningbo Challenger as he touched a career-best 146 on Monday.

Bhambri was on the edge of the top-100 when he lost his first round at the European Open in Antwerp last week and has now dropped seven places to 107.

He had returned to top-100 in April this year after spending 26 months outside the bracket. Left-handed Prajnesh, who lost the Ningbo Challenger title clash to Thomas Fabbiano on Sunday, jumped 24 places to 146.

"It was a very tough match for both of us. We played a high quality match for the most part. To put it plainly, I can't win if I don't convert break points. I don't think I took enough chances when I had the opportunity," Prajnesh said from Ningbo.
