Subject: Re: {Spam?} Fw: lost Share Certificate - Folio No N5068, Certificate Nos: 0410886 and 0410887

Dear Sir

The correct folio is 28289 and other particulars provided by the shareholder, except address, are matching. Hence, you could send an intimation to the Stock Exchanges as per LODR.

Dear Sir

We refer to the email received from your end regarding loss of share certificates.

Since the shares of the Company are transferable and the Company is bound to effect transfer of shares in favour of the transferee if the share certificates are received for transfer along with transfer deed valid in all aspects. Moreover, issue of duplicate share certificates involves many formalities like stock exchange intimations, lodging of police complaint / FIR, execution of indemnity, affidavit, paper notification etc., we request you to verify for the share certificates once again before you proceed to apply for duplicate share certificates.

However, if you want to apply for duplicate share certificate, please lodge a complaint with your local police station and provide us the copy of complaint acknowledged by police station / FIR to enable us to provide you the further formalities to be followed for issue of duplicate share certificate.

Further, we request you to note the following :

1. Change of address request duly signed by you quoting both your old and new address along with proof of your new address
2. Attached PAN and Bank mandate updation form duly filled and signed by you along with copy of PAN card and Original cancelled cheque
3. Any unencashed Dividend warrants of the Company lying with you for revalidation

Please send us the above to our below mentioned address.

We also request you to quote the correct folio No. in all your future correspondence as the Folio No. mentioned in your letter is not matching. Please revert to us for any further clarification.

Regards.....
