ALL-PARTY MEET HELD

Govt-Oppn face-off expected as winter session begins today

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, December 10

THE WINTER SESSION of parliament beginning on Tuesday is likely to witness a united opposition piling up pressure on the government on a plethora of issues like the exit of the RBI governor, rumblings in the CBI and Rafale deal, while parties like Shiv Sena are set to make a renewed pitch for Ram temple in Ayodhya.

The start of the session is coinciding with the counting of votes for Assembly polls in five states, and the outcome of the high-pitched electoral battle, seen as the "semi final" ahead of next year's Lok Sabha polls, is likely to be felt inside and outside parliament.

At an all-party meeting on Monday, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said the government is ready to discuss all issues of national importance in parliament and that it is always receptive to matters raised by various parties. He also called for cooperation from the opposition so that parliament functions smoothly.

The results of Assembly polls in Madhya Pradesh, Telangana, Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh and Mizoram are also expected to set the tone for proceedings in both the houses of parliament. An impressive performance by the Congress in Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Chhattisgarh will significantly enhance the party's confidence in taking on the government on various issues. A good show by the BIP in the politically crucial states will help it in blunting opposition attacks and pushing for several pending legislations.

On its part, the ruling BJP is expected to highlight the government managing to bring alleged middleman in the ₹3,600 crore AgustaWestland chopper deal, Christian Michel, from the UAE as well as successful pursuing of the case for extradition of fugitive businessman Vijay Mallya in a UK court.

The infighting in the Central Bureau of Investigation after which its director Alok Verma and Special Director Rakesh the government and the issue of alleged misuse of probe agencies including the CBI are also likely to be raised by the opposition. also said that they will press for a joint parliamentary committee probe into the ₹58,000-crore Rafale jet deal in which they have alleged corruption.

During the session, NDA ally Shiv Sena is likely to pitch for a law to pave the way for construction of a Ram temple at Ayodhya. A section in the BJP is also in favour of the government facilitating the construction of the temple. The winter session is taking place two days after a mega show of strength by VHP to press for early construction of the temple.

waha's charge that he was being humiliated by the BJP. The BJP never treated him with disdain even after it had become apparent that he was losing grip over his own small party," BJP Bihar unit vice-president Samrat Chaudhary said

The Bihar BJP came out with a point by point rebuttal "Despite having only three MPs, including himself, he was of the allegations levelled by Kushwaha, the former minisgiven a ministerial berth. His party underwent a crisis two Kushwaha sharply attacked years ago when he had to sus-Modi on a host of issues in his pend one of his fellow MPs and resignation letter, which was one of his two MLAs," Chaudharv said.

Kushwaha also raised the planks of Other Backward Classes (OBC) and social justice — used by the opposition to decimate the BJP in the Bihar Assembly polls in 2015 - totarget Modi. He alleged that the Modi-led government was implementing the RSS agenda and dubbed it unconstitutional.

Stating that the charge is "laughable", the BJP said the prime minister belongs to a backward class, President Ram Nath Kovind is a Dalit, while the party's Bihar unit chief is an OBC.
