Sandeep Sinha

Mr. Sandeep Sinha before his appointment as Managing Director was in the role of Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Cummins India Limited (“the Company”) since January 2015.

Prior to his appointment as COO of the Company, Mr. Sandeep was the Vice President of the Industrial Engine Business in India, where he focused on several key areas like safety, quality, operational and supply-chain excellence. He played a key role in the start-up of multiple plants at the Cummins Megasite in Phaltan, India.

With more than 15 years of experience with Cummins, Mr. Sandeep has assumed various leadership roles across entities, including the New and ReCon Parts business in India and Corporate Strategy in the U.S.

After graduating as an Engineer from the Manipal Institute of Technology, Sandeep joined Saint Gobain India for 6 years and became the National Sales Manager. He then pursued his graduate degree in Business Administration from the Kelley School of Business, Indiana University.
