Mr. Subhash Sethi, Chairman, SPML Infra commented, “Our concentrated efforts towards consolidation of our finances with prudent strategies and resource optimization measures has helped us in focusing more on project execution and winning new projects. We expect the next wave of growth will be coming from water, irrigation and power transmission & distribution sector with the government targeting to achieve 100% electrification within 2018. We are focusing to complete our 40 ongoing projects in water and power segments and enhancing the order book in these two areas. We are also expecting a number of arbitration awards in next quarter and in next fiscal that will further consolidate our financials. I am hopeful that the next quarter will be much better in terms of sales, improved profitability, project gains and we will be in a better position to declare good benefits to our shareholders.”
