INX MEDIA CASE

CBI seeks permission for Karti's narco test

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, March 7

The CBI on Wednesday moved a special court seeking permission to conduct narco analysis test on Karti Chidambaram, arrested in the INX Media case. Special judge Sunil Rana said that he will take up the matter on March 9 when Karti is brought to the court after three days of custodial interrogation by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI).

The court will also take up for hearing two other applications of the CBI seeking production warrants of Karti's chartered accountant S Bhaskaram, arrested in the money laundering case, and co-accused Indrani Mukerjee, court sources said.

Karti was, on Tuesday, sent to three more days of CBI custody with the court saying that the extension of his remand was necessary to maintain continuity in the investigation to secure evidence to arrive at the truth.

The application for narco analysis test assumes significance as the agency alleged that Karti was not cooperating in the investigation and was 'evasive' in his replies.

Mukerjee is currently in a Mumbai prison in connection with a murder case of her daughter Sheena Bora.

Karti was arrested on February 28 at the Chennai airport on his return from the UK, in connection with the FIR lodged on May 15 last year alleging irregularities in the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB) clearance to INX Media for receiving overseas funds worth about ₹305 crore in 2007 when his father P Chidambaram was the Union finance minister.

The CBI has alleged that Karti received ₹10 lakh as bribe for the FIPB clearance.

Karnataka Lokayukta stabbed in office

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Bangalore, March 7

KARNATAKA LOKAYUKTA P Vishwanath Shetty was on Wednesday stabbed multiple times and left profusely bleeding by a man who went to his office with a complaint only to be told that the case was shut, officials said. Shetty, in his early 70s, was rushed to a nearby hospital and is reported to be out of danger.

The Lokayukta collapsed after assailant Tejaraj Sharma attacked him in his chamber in a multi-storied building near the state secretariat, according to officials and eyewitnesses.

Sharma was arrested, chief minister Siddaramaiah told reporters after he rushed to Malliya Hospital and enquired about Shetty's condition.

Sharma, who had filed a complaint with the Lokayukta about not getting a tender for a work he had applied for, went to his chamber and stabbed him at three or four places, he said. He was told by the Lokayukta office that the case was shut after investigation.

Shetty suffered serious injury on his abdomen, Siddaramaiah said.

"I have spoken to doctors regarding his treatment. Doctors who are treating him have said prima facie he is out of danger," he said.

The assailant came to the office saying he wanted to meet Shetty and after entering the chamber, stabbed the Lokayukta with a knife, Siddaramaiah said.

"I was shown the weapon. The knife is big. It looks like he has attempted to murder," he said.

"I wish for his speedy recovery. Such a thing had never happened... I have instructed the DGP to investigate in detail... about his background and other things."

Mookerjee's statue vandalised; PM reacts

Two men clean a bust of Jana Sangh founder Syama Prasad Mookerjee after it was vandalised in Kolkata on Wednesday

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Kolkata/Chennai/New Delhi, March 7

A BUST of Jana Sangh founder Syama Prasad Mookerjee was vandalised in Kolkata on Wednesday, allegedly by Left supporters, an obvious act of retribution following the razing of statues of Soviet icon Vladimir Ilyich Lenin in Tripura, officials said.

As an unseemly fallout of the BJP's historic triumph in the Left-bastion of Tripura, suspected right-wing activists had pulled down two statues of Lenin at different places in the tiny north-eastern state.

On Wednesday, seven people belonging to Left-leaning group called 'Radical' vandalised the bust of Mookerjee in south Kolkata. All the seven, including a woman, were arrested, Kolkata police commissioner Rajiv Kumar said.

The incident also followed desecration of a bust of Dravidian movement founder E V Ramasamy Periyar in Tamil Nadu's Vellore after a Facebook post by a senior BJP leader. The incident triggered widespread protests across the state.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi strongly condemned the incidents of vandalism of statues and warned of stern action against those found guilty.
