Many mocked Ambedkar, tried to pull him down: PM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, March 25

MANY MOCKED BHIMRAO Ambedkar and made efforts to ensure that the son of a backward family does not progress but they failed as today's 'new India' belongs to the poor and the backward, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said on Sunday. In his monthly 'Mann ki Baat' radio address, the prime minister also hailed the role of leaders such as Mahatma Gandhi, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Ram Manohar Lohia, Charan Singh and Devi Lal for recognising agriculture and the farmers' vital aspects of the nation's economy.

"Ambedkar showed us that to succeed it is not necessary for a person to be born in an illustrious or rich family, but even those who are born to the poor in India

Today, the country is Ambedkar's India, of the poor and the backward, Modi said during his monthly 'Mann ki Baat' radio address can dare to dream and realise those dreams by achieving success", he said. The PM said he himself is an example of Ambedkar's philosophy. "...many people mocked Ambedkar, tried to pull him back and made every possible effort to ensure that the son of an impoverished and backward family does not progress in life, be something and succeed in life. But, the picture of new India is altogether different. It is an India which is Ambedkar's India, of the poor and the backward," Modi said. He added that to mark Ambedkar's birth anniversary, the government is organising 'Gram-Swaraj Abhiyan' from April 14 to May 3, in which separate programmes on village development, poverty amelioration and social justice will be held throughout India.
