Sub: Corrigendum to the Press Release

Dear Sir(s),

This has reference to the captioned subject and our letter early today submitting Press Release titled "Zensar hosts MP Alok Sharma at its new office in Green Park, UK."

We wish to revise the above press release consequent to the change in quote by Mr. Alok Sharma, MP (Member of Parliament, United Kingdom) as communicated by his office.

The revised quote to be updated in the press release is texted as below:

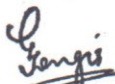

"I was pleased to meet up with Zensar and hear about their plans for the UK market. It was also good to discuss future trends in employment and the impact of machine learning and other applications. It's great that technology businesses like Zensar are continuing to set up in Reading, underpinning the town's credentials as an economic powerhouse."

Accordingly, please find attached herewith revised press released for your records and request you to replace the same with the press release currently displayed on the website of the exchange.

We regret for the inconvenience caused.

Thanking you,
Yours sincerely,

For Zensar Technologies Limited

Zensar hosts MP Alok Sharma at its new office in Green Park, UK

Reading, United Kingdom, June 4, 2018: Zensar, a leading digital solutions and technology services company that specializes in partnering with global organizations across industries on their Digital transformation journey, hosted Alok Sharma, MP (Member of Parliament) at its new office in Green Park, Reading, UK. The objective of this visit was an interactive session with the MP on Zensar's growing focus in the region and its plans to leverage the rich talent pool available in close proximity.

Commenting on this visit, Sandeep Kishore, Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director, Zensar said, "Zensar is committed to collaborating with the local communities it operates in, the UK has been a strategic market for us and we are delighted by the support and the warm welcome extended to us by the local authorities and the visit of the MP encourages us to do more.

"I was pleased to meet up with Zensar and hear about their plans for the UK market. It was also good to discuss future trends in employment and the impact of machine learning and other applications. It's great that technology businesses like Zensar are continuing to set up in Reading, underpinning the town's credentials as an economic powerhouse," said Alok Sharma MP (Member of Parliament -West Reading)

Chaitanya (Chai) Rajebahadur, Senior Vice President and Head, Europe said, "Our UK operations have been on a consistent growth path fueled by strategic relationships with some of the country's leading retail and financial brands. We acquired Foolproof, one of UK's leading UX agency in late 2016 and we have seen this adding to our offerings for UK based enterprises. It was a pleasure to host the honorable MP in our new office and we look forward to working closely with local talent to drive our success."

On this occasion, Zensar UK team and the MP discussed the various ways in which they can contribute to the community initiatives.
