Chairman Speech

The Chairman delivered his speech, highlights of which are recorded hereafter.

The Chairman acknowledged that the year 2017 ended on a strong note by reaching a historic milestone of over Rs.10,000 Crores in Revenue, in a year where the Company had to adapt to significant changes in the external environment. The Company was among the first pure play food and beverage listed companies in India to reach this milestone. It was indeed remarkable to note that in the last 15 years the turnover/ revenue grew by almost 5 times despite some challenging times. He appreciated the long lasting and clear demonstration of value of relationships with various stakeholders associated with the Company during the journey.

The Company has maintained the leadership position in nearly all the categories that it operates in. Products of the Company sold in over 3.5 million outlets with the support of over 250,000 farmers, 3,500 suppliers and 1,600 distributors. The employment base was over 7,500 people directly and over half a million indirectly. It was noteworthy that 6 out of the top 10 most loved and trusted confectionery brands belong to the Company. MAGGI, despite the recent crisis, continued to rise in rankings when it came to brand trust.

All this was only possible due to the dedication and energy of all employees, farmers, suppliers, shareholders and trade partners who laid the foundation of this Company and ensured that the growth stayed true to its course. This historic milestone signified the strength of the Company's 105-year old business in India and the Company will continue to build for the next 100 years and serve as a healthy foundation. At the core of this remained Company's commitment to a healthier future. This was defined by several commitments out of which, the Chairman highlighted three key ones, which were committed to a Healthier Society; Healthier Environment; and Healthier Products.

Elaborating further on the commitments, he stated that under 'Healthier Society' food safety remained critically important for improving public health and that the policies and actions needed coverage of the entire food chain from farm to fork. The regulatory environment in India remained very dynamic while developments were being witnessed at a rapid pace. The Chairman acknowledged the decision taken by Nestlé S.A. to set up a Nestlé Food Safety Institute in India (NFSI). NFSI aimed at building and sharing knowledge through partnerships to strengthen and support the food safety environment in India. Further, during the year 2018 the Company plans to reach close to 10,000 street food vendors across the country as part of 'Project Serve Safe Food' in collaboration with National Association of Street Food Vendors of India (NASVI). The support received from the authorities and awareness created on food safety and hygiene through the programme during 2017 was very encouraging and also the findings indicated that the programme helped in improving the income of the street vendors. Sharing about Project Jagriti, the Chairman stated that this programme encouraged healthy nutrition and breastfeeding practices, and the uptake of public health services among adolescents, young couples and caregivers. The programme aimed to reach out to about 3 million beneficiaries by the end of 2018. He further shared about the Nestlé Healthy Kids programme which was undertaken in association with Magic Bus India Foundation and had completed 3 years benefitting over 2,00,000 adolescents.

Elaborating further on commitment of 'Healthier Environment', the Chairman stated that the Company improved operational efficiencies and effective utilization of its resources and as a result in last 15 years overall water usage by the Company reduced by around 51%, waste water by around 57%, specific direct greenhouse gas emission by around 51% and energy consumption by around 43%. The Company shared the ambition that while plastic was important for integrity and safety of food products, no plastic waste should end up discarded in the environment and believes that with the right approach it can be collected or recycled without a detrimental impact. The commitment of the Company to the 3R's principle namely: 'Reduce': optimise the weight and volume of packaging; 'Recycle': use of recycled materials where appropriate and having environmental benefit; 'Recover': support initiatives to recycle or recover energy from used packaging. The Company always strived to reduce the quantity of packaging material used in operations as well as continuously worked towards reduction in waste for disposal, reduced by 63% in year 2017 as compared to 2016 and aims to reduce it to zero by 2020. He further stated that as a responsible Company, various pilot projects were initiated on waste management in active engagement with the relevant stakeholders. In partnership with other industry members, the Company initiated Pilot Project with Indian Pollution Control Association to regularize collection, segregation and recycling of post-consumption multi-layered packaging in some selected cities like Delhi, Noida, Faridabad, Gurugram, Ghaziabad, Chandigarh, Dehradun and Mumbai, and also engaged with Saahas Waste Management in the States of Tamil Nadu, Karnataka and Goa; and Nepra in the State of Gujarat to explore options on waste management services.

Elaborating on commitment of 'Healthier Product', the Chairman stated that as per the latest (2015-16) National Family Health Survey, 53% females and 22.7% males (15 - 45 years) suffered from Iron deficiency with an almost equal split across rural and urban India. Fortification was recognized as one of the most effective strategy to address micronutrient deficiency. However in India, only 2-5% of food items were believed to be fortified with the micronutrients lacking in many Indian diets. The Company continued to explore ways to fortify the mass consumption products to close the gap and contribute to a larger national objective. He further stated that fortifying the Popularly Positioned Products (PPP) with micronutrients was one way to address deficiencies where it remained prevalent among lower - income consumers. During 2017, MAGGI Masala noodles fortified with Iron was consumed in about 2.5 billion portions in India and witnessed a positive impact. Given the scale and popularity, MAGGI Masala noodles offered a powerful platform to address Iron deficiency through the Iron fortified variant, which provides 15% of the RDA and was a small step towards addressing Iron deficiency. He further shared that the Company took steps to fortify other product categories as well, example – MILO, Nestlé a+ milk, etc. For the consumers to make informed, balanced and mindful product choices, the Company adopted accurate and transparent nutrition information labelling and widely used monochrome Guideline Daily Amounts (GDA) and display of the GDA nutrition labelling on Front of Pack (FOP).

The Chairman stated that as part of the Company's commitment to responsible marketing of food and beverage products to children in India, the Company along with other 8 member companies had signed a Pledge on Responsible marketing and communication to children below 12 years since 2010. The Company displayed the GDA / calorie count in all packaging in proportion to each serving of the product. The Company made continuous efforts to reduce sodium in the MAGGI portfolio and in recent years have already reduced it by one-third per serve and committed to further bringing it down by 10% per serve by 2020. In Infant Cereals, the reduction in sucrose contributed to around 700 tonnes per annum. The Company continued on the journey to enhance consumer value of the brands with the introduction of iron fortified MAGGI Masala Noodles and also introduced fortified Nestlé a+ Milk during the year. These were some of the small steps taken to address issues of iron and Vitamin D deficiency prevalent in India. The Company will endeavour to fortify the products appropriately in line with national priorities of 'Food Fortification' and bring more of its Science and Nutrition knowledge to this cause.

Commenting on the Company's contribution, the Chairman stated that with the presence of Nestlé in India for over 105 years, it has been a part of the societal, economic and other changes which was witnessed in the country. The introduction of the Goods and Services Tax (GST) marked a historic milestone towards a single economic union for India with a unified tax structure. In the long run, GST will strengthen compliance, bring greater transparency and reduce complexities in tax structure of the country. Sharing on how the Company dealt with it, he stated that the Company embraced on three core principles to "Prepare, Practice and Partner" to ensure a seamless transition into next tax regime. He acknowledged the contribution of the entire team and all other stakeholders for the enormous efforts that have been put in. The Company was one of the first few companies to announce the transition to GST and passing of the benefits to the consumers.

As part of the GST roll out, the Company rewired several key processes within the organization, trained over 3,500 suppliers and 1,600 distributors covering the entire direct value chain of the Company. These dedicated efforts resulted in an orderly and fairly smooth transition into an environment, defined by the biggest fiscal change in independent India. He said that innovation and renovation have contributed to nearly one fourth of growth recently. The thrust on innovation and renovation continued last year with the launch of MILO, new variants of GREKYO, MAGGI Nutri-licious Noodles, MILKYBAR and KIT KAT Dessert Delight. The Company focused on creative ways to engage the consumers. 'MAGGI Masalas of India' engagement with Google was the first-of-its kind in the country where Google allowed to use the search engine as a platform for voting on which flavours of Masalas of India would consumers like and want. Long history of serving, engaging and growing with the consumers were testimony of the fact that Purpose and Values remained at the centre of continuous evolution to become an even better organization. He stated that being nimble footed, keenly responsive, embracing numerous opportunities and blessed with employees and partners with a deep sense of pride and commitment to the Nestlé spirit will continue to inspire all on the journey, yet again.

Commenting on way forward, the Chairman stated that during the year 2018, the Company will bring consumers closer by being more responsible, transparent and will focus on sustainable long-term relationships that add value. He stated that the industry has evolved at a tremendous pace and would like to ride the tide and be ahead of the curve. Recent consumer trends had shown that income levels have grown with the urbanization. Consumers sought newer product experiences rooted in nutrition, health and wellness. This brought with it a new growth opportunity for the Company.

Finally, commenting on the business developments, the Chairman stated that with the vision to introduce healthier products and to innovate continuously, the Company would be introducing the breakfast cereal business in the market with some relevant and engaging launches.

Closing his speech, the Chairman thanked all the members for their support commitment towards the Company and for the loyalty, abiding hope and support which truly inspired the team at Nestlé India to work towards reaching new heights and help in creating shared value for all our stakeholders.

shareholders who sought bringing back MILO on the shelves and introduction of dark chocolate and stated that the Company continue to evaluate the consumer needs and will consider the proposal at the opportune time.

To respond to some of the questions of the shareholders, the Chairman invited Mr. Shobinder Duggal, Director- Finance & Control and CFO.

Mr. Duggal thanked Chairman and responding to the query on royalty paid to the Licensors under the General Licence Agreement, he explained that brands, technology, quality, know how etc are lifelines of the Company for generating revenue and enabling evolution of the share price over a period of time. The Company pays fair value for such bundle of services received from the Licensors. Mr. Duggal further explained that the Company had agreed on 22nd March, 2013 to increase the royalty rates by 20 basis points every year starting from 2014 till 2018 and the rate was going to go up from three and a half percent net of taxes to four and a half percent net of taxes. The Company followed what was agreed with the Licensors at that time and the same was accounted for in the annual accounts albeit on a higher base of Sales.

Responding to the demand for issue of bonus shares, Mr. Duggal explained that in deciding on any capital increase, the Company had to take into account the requirement of such funds, the cost of servicing the Capital i.e. maintaining dividend on the enlarged share capital vis-à-vis the interest payments on borrowings and an appropriate debt-equity ratio. The management believed that the current share capital of the Company was appropriate for the current size of Company's business. He added that the various options are evaluated from time to time and are constantly reviewed.

in 2007. The business model was looked at again at the time of re-launch of the business and it was concluded that even after a decade, there was not much change in the way of doing pet food business. Besides pet foods as a category was still evolving in India and required strong commercial focus. Pet foods business works on a different business model in terms of logistics, distribution model, route to market etc. and caters to a completely different set of customers. One of the factors was sensitivity about storing, selling and distributing pet food and foods meant for humans together. He further explained that the Company has always been exploring new businesses and products in India and that the decision to house the product/ category in the Company or any other entity will be taken after due consideration looking at the needs of the specific business and synergies with the existing businesses and will continue to be dealt with on a business by business basis in the best interest of all stakeholders. Giving an example, he stated that while pet foods business has been undertaken under a separate entity, as announced recently the Company will be undertaking Breakfast Cereals Business as there are synergies in the business model in terms of logistics, distribution, route to market etc. and caters to same customers.

The Chairman thanked Mr. Duggal and thereafter invited Mr. B. Murli, Senior Vice President – Legal & Company Secretary to respond to some specific questions of the shareholders.

Mr. Murli thanked the Chairman and responding to the suggestion of the shareholders to allow discounts on the Company's products at the staff shops, he explained that it was not feasible to offer discount at Company's staff shop at Gurugram or on any other retail outlet due to complexity. Anyway giving discounts merely on the basis of being a member attending AGM besides being inequitable, could be construed as a gift. Therefore, in all fairness to the shareholders based in and out of India, it would not be possible to accede to such suggestions from the members.

Responding on a specific question from shareholder on transfer of profits not being made to General Reserves to avoid Bonus, Mr. Murli explained that carrying forward previous year profits in the profit and loss account provides greater flexibility in terms of its utilisation.

Commenting on specific suggestion of some shareholders on providing evoting facility at the AGM venue, Mr. Murli stated that the Company will consider and evaluate its feasibility depending on the average number of members voting at the AGM.

The Chairman thereafter thanked Mr. Murli for the response to the shareholders' questions and expressed his gratefulness for the involvement, passion, energy and all the suggestions the members had given. All queries relating to the Agenda items had been responded to the best of ability.

Finally, the Chairman thanked all the members/ proxy holders for their presence and for the trust, passion, confidence and honest sharing of ideas and acknowledged appreciation of the members' sentiments and long cherished relationship with the Company.

Conduct of voting through Ballot Paper
