Global textile business is at an inflection point with clear megatrends playing out on both Demand and Supply sides

Demand Trends

1. Fast-fashion is now table-stakes

- Success of Zara, H&M and Uniqlo is forcing all brands to be nimble
- Global brands strongly prefer buying complete apparel solutions

2. Innovation and Sustainability have become critical drivers

- Weatherproof, ultra-light and smart-clothing becoming norm
- Performance sports/sports inspired largest and growing segment
- Closed-loop Circular Fashion is the new sustainability frontier

3. Domestic market rapidly organizing and achieving scale for branded segments

- Branded apparel (also Branded fabrics) growing at 12%-15% (5-6% unbranded)

Supply Trends

1. Re-ordering of the global supply chain

- Gradual receding of China, rising Bangladesh and Vietnam, emerging Ethiopia & India

2. Post GST, domestic supply chains to shift in favor of compliant players

Arvind gearing up well to realize the global and India market opportunities

Demand and Supply Trends
