2002 RIOTS SOG to probe exhumation case against Setalvad

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
AHMEDABAD, JULY 31

THE CASE against activist Teesta Setalvad for the alleged illegal exhumation of bodies of the post-Godhra riots victims has been handed over to the Special Operations Group (SOG) of the city's Detection of Crime Branch (DCB).

Gujarat Director General of Police Shivanand Jha, had handed the investigation over to the SOG two weeks back, said Assistant Commissioner of Police B C Solanki.

Last year, the Supreme Court had refused to entertain Setalvad's plea seeking to quash the FIR registered against her by Lunawada police in Panchmahal district.

The Gujarat High Court had earlier rejected a similar plea in 2011.

"Till now, all 11 accused named in the FIR lodged in January 2006 have been arrested and a chargesheet has been filed. Setalvad was shown as accused in the chargesheet, but due to the court matters (her applications in the court), she was never arrested," ACP Solanki said, who is also a member of Supreme Court appointed Special Investigation Team (SIT) which proved nine major riot cases.

He said that barring Setalvad all other accused, including Rais Khan Pathan, were arrested and all are out on bail. Khan was once close to Setalvad in assisting riots survivors.

"Her anticipatory bail plea is pending in the High Court and is expected to come up for hearing on August 14. We will wait till the final outcome," said Solanki. It had been alleged that after the 2002 Gujarat riots, Panchmahal district officials buried bodies of 28 unidentified riot victims from Pandarwada and surrounding villages in a graveyard on the banks of river Panam near Lunawada.

In December 2005, Setalvad's former aide Rais Khan and some others allegedly exhumed these bodies, without permissions from police and other authorities. It led to the registration of an FIR against Khan and 10 others. The Gujarat High Court later ordered DNA tests of the victims' remains under CBI. During the trial, Khan stated that he exhumed the bodies at Setalvad's behest. In 2006, an FIR was registered against her, which called her the "prime conspirator".

As traders reject 'adulterated' stock of groundnut, Govt, NAFED pass the buck

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
RAJKOT, JULY 31

AFTER TRADERS refused to take delivery of groundnut from a godown alleging adulteration in the stock, originally belonging to the National Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Federation of India Limited (NAFED), Agriculture Minister Ranchhod Faldu on Tuesday said that he suspected "something amiss" and promised to take action if NAFED filed a complaint. NAFED, however, said it had no power to file a police complaint and instead blamed the purchasing agency, GUJCOT, for it.

The issue came to light after five traders who had placed the winning bids during an auction conducted by NAFED to sell 30,000 bags (each containing 35 kg) of groundnut-in-shell refused to take delivery of groundnut on Tuesday alleging that the groundnut stock was mixed with soil and pebbles. The five, who had gone to a warehouse in at Pedhla village of Jethpur taluka in Rajkot district on Tuesday morning to take the delivery, claimed that the groundnut stock at the godown was not the same as the samples shown during the auction.

NAFED officers said that 10,500 quintal of groundnut stored in the godown of Jayshree International was worth Rs 4.72 crore. It had been auctioned off around a week ago at an average price of Rs 3,700 per quintal.

Following the news, Agriculture Minister Faldu held a press conference in Gandhinagar and said: "We suspect some irregularities have been committed here. The state government is ready to take action if NAFED comes forward with a complaint in this regard."

But NAFED Chairman Vaghji Boda

hit out at Faldu and the state government. "Apparently, he (Agriculture Minister) is not aware of what he is talking about. NAFED has no direct jurisdiction to file a police complaint in this incident as the groundnut stock in question was procured by GUJCOT on our behalf. Therefore, primarily it is incumbent upon GUJCOT to report irregularities, if any to police. Our complaint in this matter may not be maintainable."

"If soil and pebbles are there in bags, it must have been mixed with groundnut when the groundnut was packed after procurement from farmers. If the stock was tampered with after it was stored in the godown, it is responsibility of the warehouse, which, in this case, is Gujarat State Warehousing Corporation (GSWC)," Boda told The Indian Express. The GSWC is the warehousing firm of the Gujarat government.

Boda alleged that there were irregularities in groundnut procurement and blamed it on state government. "We had signed agreements with five agencies for procuring groundnut on our behalf on the directions of the Gujarat government. These five agencies were identified by state government and it was the state government which decided the quota of procurement for each of them. These agencies in turn assigned the task of procurement to cooperative societies selectively but most of them were either sick or almost bankrupt. We fear more such incidents will come to light," added the NAFED chairman.

NAFED had procured more than eight lakh tonnes of groundnut from Gujarat on the orders of the Central government. The record procurement, which was made in an election year in Gujarat, was worth more than Rs 3,600 crore.

Incidentally, Boda had last month expressed suspicion of malpractice in procurement of groundnut in the state and sought probe pointing to the incidents of fire at groundnut godowns.

A godown in Gandhidham caught fire on January 2, gutting Rs 12 crore worth of oilseed procured by NAFED. It was followed by another godown in Gondal taluka of Rajkot catching fire. There groundnut stock worth Rs 28 crore was destroyed. The third incident of fire took place in Shapar-Veraval.

Dairy unions cut procurement price for milk as supply rises

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
ANAND, JULY 31

WITH A sharp rise in milk production, member dairy unions of the Gujarat Cooperative Milk Marketing Federation (GCMMF) have cut the price of milk procurement.

GCMMF markets milk and dairy products under the brand name of Amul.

There has been a significant rise in supply of milk to dairy unions, with the GCMMF collecting around 200 lakh litre on a daily basis, which is around 16 per cent more than last year, its managing director RS Sodhi said.

"This has put stress on the balance sheet of dairy unions. Member dairy unions have taken the decision to cut milk procurement price due to rise in supply, coupled with dull markets," said Sodhi.

Rising milk production coupled with reduction in milk powder price has forced the member dairy unions to cut the price of milk procured from farmers, according to Sodhi.

GCMMF is the apex marketing body of all the 18 district dairy unions of Gujarat.

As per a India Ratings and Research report on the dairy sector, milk production in the country is expected to touch 186 million tonne in FY19.
