The department's contention before a bench of Justices S.J. Lakshman and Justice A.K. Chawla by additional counsel (ASG) Tushar Mehta.

The bench, after hearing for two hours, reserved its verdict for 10 days on the pleas of Rahul Gandhi and Congress leader. All of whom have challenged their tax assessments for 2011-12.

While reserving the order, the court asked the tax department to take a coercive step against Sonia Gandhi till pronouncement of the order.

When the bench was asked to give an interim direction on this, the court said there was no need to pass a writ because the department assured that no coercive action would be taken in the meantime.

After which senior advocate Damodar Dambaram, appearing for Sonia Gandhi, said he had faith in the oral statement of the department's ASG.

ASG Mehta argued that the department had alleged malafide on the part of the taxpayer but had not made any attempt in this regard. Regarding the department's contention that a notice was sent to the taxpayer at 11:28 pm on Monday, the law officer said adhering to the department's contention would be termed 'malafide exercise'.

"I (assessing officer) will be held liable for malafide if I do not send a notice," he argued. Chidambaram said that the department's contention that the assessment was "perverse" and that "non-application of mind" was not a ground for setting aside the assessment.

He also said that the Congress leader had declared an income of ₹1.9 lakh for her shares in Youvaan in 2011 and now she was told that ₹154 lakh was her taxable income. He termed it a "malafide exercise". During the hearing, the court said that Rahul's assessment was based on income from other sources and that the department had concealed material facts, including that he had declared an income of ₹1.9 lakh for her shares in Youvaan in 2011, which was concealed from the tax authorities.

"He (Rahul) failed to full and frank disclosure of material facts," he said. "The department got to know through some sources that she conducted her own enquiry and reached a conclusion that this income was not her income and it must be looked into. The assessment and it must be looked into which the assessment was reopened."
