Mr Mohan Goenka, Director, Emami Limited said: “We started the year FY19 with 19% growth in the first quarter. Both volume and revenue registered a handsome recovery compared to the GST impacted corresponding quarter of last year.

This quarter, we have seen wholesale recovery across the regions, which is a positive sign. We continued to put emphasis on rural and retail distribution and focussed on van operations as a part of our rural distribution, particularly targeting areas with under 5K population strata. Good growth also came from Modern trade and CSD sales. Internationally, volatile business
