Press Release

Maruti Suzuki organises ‘Freedom Service Camp’ to delight customers

A 21-day service camp at all dealer-workshops pan India

New Delhi, August 14th, 2018: Maruti Suzuki India is hosting a two-week Freedom Service Camp from August 10th – 30th, 2018 at its dealer workshops across the country. This initiative further strengthens Maruti Suzuki’s commitment towards offering a delightful service experience to its customers.

Customers driving in to the dealer workshops during this campaign will have the option to opt for special offers on extended warranty, parts, accessories and service labour charges. Customers can also avail offers on labour charges for car body repair. The vehicles will be examined by trained and well-qualified technicians to facilitate ‘worry-free’ drive for customers.

Speaking about the camp, Mr. Partho Banerjee, Executive Director (Service), Maruti Suzuki India said, “With customer delight at the core of our business strategy, the Freedom Service Camp will help customers in maintaining their vehicle health with special offers and complimentary services. On the eve of Independence Day celebration, Maruti Suzuki is confident that its customers will appreciate this initiative and benefit from the offerings at the camp.”

Maruti Suzuki has been catering to the diverse audience of India for over 35 years. This initiative marks the company’s continued commitment towards providing the best of service facilities for enhanced vehicle performance. Recently, a ‘Monsoon Service Camp’ was also held to offer vehicle health check up in the challenging season of monsoons.
