Former prime minister Manmohan Singh said Vajpayee was a great patriot and among modern India's tallest leaders who spent his whole life serving the country. Congress President Rahul Gandhi said India has lost "a great son" who was loved and respected by millions.

Several of his own party leaders also said Vajpayee was an inspiration to millions, an intense speaker and a true diplomat.

Union minister Jitendra Singh said even non-BJP supporters would listen to Vajpayee in public rallies just to pick up speaking skills from his oratory.

"We grew up listening to him, learning from him, inspired by him. There was no electronic media those days, but many of our college-mates, who did not subscribe to our ideology, would come over to his rallies, just to pick up speaking skills from his oratory," Singh told PTI.

Union minister Harsh Vardhan said he has lost his "mentor and guide" who had handheld him into politics.

"A visionary statesman, with political sagacity, his acceptability across diverse ideological spectrum endeared him to all," Vardhan said.

He said Indian scientific community would ever be grateful to Vajpayee who he expanded the 'Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan' slogan to include 'Jai Vigyan' after the Pokhran nuclear test and his courageous decision to go for the second nuclear test was the beginning of an India to reckon with.

Another Union minister VK Singh said he was deeply saddened by the demise of our beloved leader.

"India has lost one of her most beloved sons, a statesman, and unarguably one of the best PMs to have led the country. Rest In Peace Atalji, we will miss you," he tweeted.

Congress MP Milind Deora said, "Atal Bihari Vajpayee was a poet and statesman who put country before party. In the spirit of bipartisanship, he worked closely with my late father Murlibhai to strengthen Indo-US ties and liberalise India's insurance sector My condolences to Gunu didi, Ranjan, his family & supporter(sic)."

Lok Janshakti Party chies Ram Vilas Paswan said many people are known by the post, but the post of prime minister was very small in front of Atal Bihar Vajpayee.

"He was a great politician, intense speaker a true diplomat, having clarity in thinking, war rior of social justice and a great nationalist," Paswar tweeted. Union ministe Suresh Prabhu said, "Atalj struggled all his life to up hold the ideals so dear to him, it culminated in hi becoming PM In 1996, pe riod of 1998-2004 when he held the position again will be always remembere #GoodGovernance. Fough with ailments, last fev years, today fight ends. W always will miss you".
