PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 13

RELIANCE JIO EMERGED as the fastest 4G operator with an average peak download speed of 22.3 Mbps on its network in August while Idea Cellular registered the highest upload speed in the month, according to a Trai report.

Jio's national average of 4G download speed was more than double compared to its rival Bharti Airtel, which recorded a download speed of 10 megabits per second (Mbps), according to the data published by the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (Trai) on MySpeed Portal.

While download speed on Idea 4G network remained flat 6.2 Mbps between July and August, speed on Vodafone improved slightly to 6.7 Mbps in August from 6.4 Mbps in July. The two companies announced the completion of their

BUILDING THE NATION

Atlas Copco In on industrial

GEETA NAIR
Pune, September 13

THE ATLAS COPCO Group has restructured its business globally and this has led to restructuring of business in the Indian operations, Atlas Copco (India), which will now solely focus on compressor, pumps, vacuum and tools in the industrial business segment.

The parent company had hived of its mining and rock excavation business into a new company, Epiroc, and this has been done in India too. It accounted for around one third of the Atlas Copco business in India. The road construction equipment business has been globally sold to Fayath Group of France. Atlas Copco is also in the process of acquiring US-based Brooks Automation's cryogenic business to expand its vacuum technology business. The company had, few years ago, acquired Edwards Group, which is now part of the vacuum technique busi-
